Social Media creator, Woman Cradle of Abundance, June 2023 - present

- I participated in an internship with the Nonprofit WCoA as a social media creator. During this experience, I utilized platforms such as Instagram and Facebook to establish and enhance the organization's social media presence. Additionally, I provided support with resolving technology-related issues.
- As the representative of the Woman Cradle of Abundance, I planned an event at TCNJ. I was in charge of setting up the location, getting the slideshows ready, and promoting the organization's importance.
- Presently, I serve as a social media coordinator on their board of members.
